What's Hot: Red Rock unveils new spa

By Brittany Farb Gruber on 6/30/2016

Red Rock Resort in Las Vegas recently opened its newly renovated spa and wellness facility, Well & Being Spa. Managed by Trilogy Spa Holdings, the new spa experience offers guests a personalized assortment of medically guided tools.

Red Rock Resort's new Well & Being Spa offers medically guided treatments and tools

The spa is the first non-medical facility in the U.S. to offer Lancer facial and body treatments, with services ranging from the Lancer Glow anti-aging facial to the Sparkle and Glow Body Polish treatment.

The multimillion-dollar upgrade features a comprehensive fitness area with treadmills and a mind-body studio with floor-to-glass windows that offers TRX, tai chi and vertical wall yoga classes. A second fitness studio will offer spinning and In-Trinity Board classes.
